I Know Where I'm Going

A film by Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger, made in 1945

Last month the Society had planned to welcome our new members for 2018 at an event that was to be held on August 25th. As we all know, the Islands were threatened with Hurricane Lane, and we decided to err on the side of caution and cancel. Now we will combine the first event of the program year with the cancelled welcome party.

Please come to 411 Hobron Ln. on Friday, September 28th at 6:00 pm to welcome our new members and enjoy a romantic film from 1945, as well as a potluck supper. If you've been to one of these welcome parties, please bring a side dish to share. If you are new to our Society, please just come and enjoy yourselves! The Society will be BBQing a meat. There is no charge for this event but donations are appreciated.

The movie, I Know Where I'm Going, was filmed in the Hebrides, and stars Wendy Hiller and Roger Livesey, both British actors. The story revolves around Joan Webster's (Hiller) decision to go to the fictitious Isle of Kiloran to marry. Bad weather forces her to stop and wait on the Isle of Mull where she encounters Torquil MacNeil (Livesey). Their interest in each other grows as they wait out the storm, but she insists on going on to Kiloran even though the storm has not passed.

The 2019 Burns Dinner Update

We noted in the last newsletter that we were having difficulty finding a venue for the Burns Dinner due to the exorbitant charges for a bottle of whisky. We are making some progress on this, but we are not ready to announce the details as yet. Please continue to save the date of January 26, 2019, and we will provide the information as soon as possible.

Chieftain's Column: From the Craig

In this issue of the newsletter, you will see the various events that we have laid out for our membership during the current activity year (see page 3). There are opportunities to get members involved as presenters at some of these events. When we reach out, please volunteer for anything that interests you.

The Caledonian Society has again been asked to support Hawaii Public Radio by answering phones during the upcoming Fall fundraiser. Our time slot is October 4th from 10am-12noon. We need 5-6 volunteers to help. Anyone interested should contact Susan MacKinnon at susanmack1@mac.com.

In the mail recently came a notice from Ian Couper, a Scottish author of short stories. He says the stories are "filled with contemporary storylines, Scottish nostalgia, folklore, mysticism and historical fiction" around major events of Scotland's past (including the Battle of Culloden, the Clearances & Emigration to the New World for example)." This could be interesting reading and some of his books can be bought on Amazon.com.

For those interested in the status of the Falls of Clyde, I am happy to announce that our Scottish partner, Save Falls of Clyde International, has a contract with a heavy lift ship company to begin the repatriation of the ship on February 3, 2019. We are confident that the Harbors Division will use common sense and support the extension for the ship to remain in the harbor until then. Friends of Falls of Clyde hopes to show Hawaii support for the repatriation by securing donations to help underwrite the move. Please contribute if you can. Tax deductible donations can be made through a PayPal link in the website www.friendsoffallofclayde.org or mailed to Friends of Falls of Clyde, P.O. Box 4674, Honolulu, HI 96812.

Caledonian Society member Marcia Wright passed away on Sunday, Aug. 27th at the age of 62. She was a 1974 graduate of Punahou School where she was in the orchestra. She continued her musical studies at California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks, CA. Marcia was active in the Hawaii Opera chorus and would volunteer backstage usually with the wardrobe department. She was a member of the Daughters of Hawaii along with other members of her family. The Caledonian Society was honored to have her play for various events of ours and she will be missed as an active member of the Society. Our condolences to her family. Services are pending. We will send an email when we know the details of her service.

Are you aware of the Society's SERG for students? Awards of up to $2000 may be given each year to students to undertake and complete a project to learn something about Scotland or Scottish history or culture. Puck's Glen While reading the Summer Edition of Scottish Life, I became interested in an article on Puck's Glen on the Cowal Peninsula of Argyll & Bute. So, I looked up more information on Wikipedia and discovered a beautiful forested ravine with a walk about a mile-and-a-half long and described as "One of the most magical forests in Scotland." I also found it interesting that, in 1870, over six million trees were planted around the Benmore Estate owned by a sugar refiner and philanthropist, James Duncan. —Susan MacKinnon

A Joke from Jeannie Ferrier

A Scotsman moves to Canada and attends his first baseball game.

The first batter approaches the batters' box, takes a few swings and then hits a double.

Everyone is on their feet screaming, "Run!!!"

The next batter hits a single.

The Scotsman listens as the crowd again cheers, "RUN!! RUN!!".

The Scotsman is enjoying the game and begins screaming with the fans.

The fifth batter comes up and four balls go by.

The Umpire calls: "Walk."

The batter starts his slow trot to first base.

The Scot stands up and screams, "Run ye lazy bastard, run!!"

The people around him begin laughing.

Embarrassed, the Scot sits back down.

A friendly fan notes the man's embarrassment, leans over and explains, "He can't run -- he has four balls."

The Scot stands up and screams: "Walk with pride, Laddie!"
