RLS Birthday Movie—Kidnapped

Saturday, Nov 14th Epiphany Episcopal Church Hall
1041 10th Ave, Honolulu (Kaimuki)
6 pm Personal sack suppers
6:30 pm Birthday cake
7:00 pm Movie: Kidnapped (1971)

The world-famous Scottish writer and friend of Hawaiian royalty, Robert Louis Stevenson, was born in 1850. But in 1891, at the age of 41, he formally gave away his Nov. 13th birthday to a 12-year-old girl (See below for details). So fittingly we will celebrate his birth and his art the next day, Nov. 14th, with a birthday cake and the 1971 film version of his famous novel Kidnapped, first published in 1886. The novel Kidnapped is sometimes said to be Stevenson's masterpiece.

Bring your own sack supper. We will provide birthday cake, popcorn, and iced tea, and in return suggest a donation of $3 for members or $4 for non-members—reservations not necessary. Parking at the church is plentiful. Turn makai (toward the ocean) off of Harding Ave. and the church is on your left. The hour from 6:00 to 7:00 is for eating and celebrating; the movie starts at 7:00 pm.

This hard-to-find movie version of Kidnapped was filmed in Scotland with lots of great Scottish scenery and is said to be about 80% historically accurate. The movie stars Michael Caine with Lawrence Douglas, Vivien Heilbron, Trevor Howard, Donald Pleasance, Jack Hawkins, Gordon Jackson, and others in a rousing adventure story set in Scotland in 1751.

“No further use for a birthday.” In June of 1891, Stevenson heard that Annie Ide, the 12-year-old daughter of the U.S. Commissioner to Samoa, where Stevenson then lived, was unhappy with her birthday, which was Christmas Day. He sent a formal-sounding document to her family in which he gave his own birthday, Nov. 13th, to Annie. The document states that Miss Ide “was born, out of all reason, upon Christmas Day, and is therefore, out of all justice, denied the consolation and profit of a Proper Birthday.” It asserts that “I, the said Robert Louis Stevenson, have attained an age when we never mention it, and that I have now no further use for a birthday of any description.”

The document asserts that he “has transferred, and do hereby transfer to the said A.H. Ide, all and whole of my rights and privileges in the 13th day of November, formerly my birthday, now, hereby, and henceforth, the birthday of the said A.H. Ide, to have, hold, exercise and enjoy the same in the customary manner, by the sporting of fine raiment, eating of rich meats and receipt of gifts, compliments and copies of verse, according to the manner of our ancestors.”

Chieftain's Column: From the Craig

As our 50th Anniversary year winds down, I look forward to seeing many of you at the last two events: Robert Louis Stevenson's birthday (11/14/15) and our annual Pre-Hogmanay Ceilidh (12/26/15), which this year will recap our entire year of celebration. This has been a very event-packed year that has used a lot of our resources. As a reminder, you can get a tax-deductible donation for 2015 to help close out the year. Our upcoming events in 2016 will begin with another excellent Burns Night on January 30, 2016 and a series of educational member events throughout the year. I want to thank everyone who has made a contribution to our success this year and encourage any member to get involved in 2016.

Slainte, Bruce McEwan, Chieftain

The Annual Robert Burns Supper

January 30, 2016

Oahu Country Club

150 Country Club Rd., Honolulu

Because of the life and works of the Scotland's National Bard, Robert Burns, Society members and guests will dress in their best Scottish wear for the annual Burns Night on Saturday, January 30, 2016, at the Oahu Country Club for cocktails, dinner, and a program both traditional and innovative. Please note the date, which has been changed from the date announced earlier.

*Corn rigs, an' barley rigs,
An' corn rigs are bonie:
I'll ne'er forget that happy night,
Among the rigs wi' Annie.*
--The Rigs O' Barley
--Robert Burns 1773

This year we look forward to hearing songs by Burns and others in a program called "Singing Burns." Burns wrote lyrics to hundreds of tunes thus saving them from oblivion. We are honored to have professional musicians Stephen Strugnell and Simon Crookall, who have sung throughout Scotland, to be our guiding singers. (See the introduction to our singers below.) As usual we will welcome the pipe band from across the moors, watch the haggis ceremonially addressed and slashed open, toast the Lassies and the Laddies, and gratefully toast to The Immortal Memory of Robert Burns.

Although the festivities are still several months away, reservations are being accepted now at Early Bird prices of $85 for members and $95 for non-members. After Jan 11th, regular prices are $95 for members and $105 for non-members. Tables for 8 may be reserved for $680. Seating assignments are made in the order in which reservations are received.

Wouldn't a Burns reservation be a great Christmas gift for your friends and family? Copy and fill in the reservation form from this newsletter, mail it with your check at the Early Bird prices now, and check off at least one item on your holiday gift list.

SIMON CROOKALL

Simon Crookall was appointed Executive Director for Hawaii Opera Theatre in June 2013. Before moving to Hawaii, Simon was President and CEO of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra from 2005 to 2012. Originally from the UK, Simon worked in Scotland for over twenty years, as Chief Executive of the Royal Scottish National Orchestra, and previously General Manager of The Queen's Hall in Edinburgh. Simon is a graduate in Economics from King's College, Cambridge University, where he was a choral scholar in the world-famous King's College Chapel Choir. Equally at home on the operatic stage as on the concert platform, Simon's roles have included Ping (Turandot) and Dr Falke (Die Fledermaus) at Haddo House in Aberdeenshire, Scotland. In the field of oratorio he has sung works by Bach, Handel and Brahms with choral societies across Scotland. For many years he conducted the Paisley Chamber Choir and the Haddo House Choral Society, and sang at the launch of the Saltire Scottish Song Book.

STEPHEN STRUGNELL

A graduate of Edinburgh University Music Faculty and an arts professional in Scotland for twenty years, Stephen Strugnell is now General Manager of Chamber Music Hawaii. For many years, Stephen was the pianist in the Laigh Trio, a piano trio who specialized in salon music and whose repertoire ranged from Bach to Broadway. In addition to performing across Scotland, the Trio also visited France, Spain, Scandinavia and Eastern Europe. Stephen has worked with many of Scotland's leading musicians including Jimmy Shand's fiddle player Ian Powrie, Gaelic singer Anne Lorne Gillies, and George Donald of 'Scotland the What!'. On leaving university Stephen became the Marketing Manager for the Scottish Chamber Orchestra, and was later the Marketing Manager for the BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra. For many years he was a freelance journalist for The Scotsman and The Glasgow Herald, as well as Administrator of the Georgian Concert Society, which specialized in the performance of Early Music, and of Westbourne Music, one of Scotland's major promoters of chamber music.

Pre-Hogmanay Ceilidh
Penthouse at 1001 Wilder Avenue, Honolulu
Saturday, December 26, 2015 starting at 4:30 pm

On Boxing Day, the day after Christmas (Saturday, Dec. 26), come to our Pre-Hogmanay Ceilidh. This holiday season party in the lovely penthouse at 1001 Wilder Ave, hosted by Elspeth Kerr, the 2015 Scot of the Year, has become a popular tradition in the holiday season with games and puzzles and entertaining contributions by the party goers themselves. Bring a joke or a song or something to perform if you wish. This last party of our 50th year will also feature a pictorial look back at the Society events of 2015.

Please phone Jeannie Ferrier at 593-0966 for reservations and to offer or to ask for a ride. When you arrive, an attendant at the building will direct you to the parking on the 5th floor. After parking, proceed to the nearby main entrance and take the elevator to the Penthouse.

New to the ceilidh this year is a potluck supper at 5:30 pm. So bring a potluck dish for the supper table (maybe holiday leftovers in a "box"?). We will provide punch, tea, and coffee, but BYOB if you would like to share something alcoholic. Donations will be welcome at $3 for members and $4 for non-members to cover expenses.
